

Topic 3 Lesson 5 - America's Home Front During World War

Quiz on America's Home Front During World War I

True or False (10 Questions)

1. True or False: The U.S. government encouraged citizens to grow Victory Gardens during World War I to help alleviate food shortages.
2. True or False: Women were not involved in the workforce during World War I, as men filled all factory jobs.
3. True or False: The U.S. implemented a draft to build a strong military force during World War I.
4. True or False: The Espionage Act and Sedition Act were enacted to protect free speech during the war.
5. True or False: The signing of the armistice on November 11, 1918, marked the official end of World War I.
6. True or False: The Bolshevik Revolution in Russia in 1917 led to Russia exiting World War I.
7. True or False: President Wilson's ideas for peace after the war were universally accepted by Americans.
8. True or False: The Treaty of Versailles included a Guilt Clause that assigned blame for the war to Germany.
9. True or False: The postwar period saw an increase in economic stability and prosperity for returning soldiers.
10. True or False: The Red Scare resulted from fears of communism and led to raids against suspected radicals.

Do Not Scroll Below This Point. The Answers Are on The Next Page.

Topic 3 Lesson 5 - America's Home Front During World War

Quiz on America's Home Front During World War I

True or False (10 Questions)

1. True or False: The U.S. government encouraged citizens to grow Victory Gardens during World War I to help alleviate food shortages.
Answer: True
2. True or False: Women were not involved in the workforce during World War I, as men filled all factory jobs.
Answer: False
3. True or False: The U.S. implemented a draft to build a strong military force during World War I.
Answer: True
4. True or False: The Espionage Act and Sedition Act were enacted to protect free speech during the war.
Answer: False
5. True or False: The signing of the armistice on November 11, 1918, marked the official end of World War I.
Answer: False
6. True or False: The Bolshevik Revolution in Russia in 1917 led to Russia exiting World War I.
Answer: True
7. True or False: President Wilson's ideas for peace after the war were universally accepted by Americans.
Answer: False
8. True or False: The Treaty of Versailles included a Guilt Clause that assigned blame for the war to Germany.
Answer: True
9. True or False: The postwar period saw an increase in economic stability and prosperity for returning soldiers.
Answer: False
10. True or False: The Red Scare resulted from fears of communism and led to raids against suspected radicals.
Answer: True